
PRIVACY POLICY

RESPECTING YOUR PRIVACY

LaCrate is committed to complying with the Privacy Amendment (Private Sector) Act 2000 and the privacy provisions of all applicable legislation.

The Act sets clear standards for collecting, accessing, storing, and using personal information that we obtain as part of our business operations. This includes information we collected from people in person, via email, our website, over the phone and on work sites.

YOUR INFORMATION

We will only collect the information necessary for us to establish an account and provide products and services. As well as individual details of personnel, we may require information regarding your business operations.

We will not give out any of your information to any third parties except in compliance with a request of law enforcement or the government department. Under no circumstances will your name, e-mail, phone number, address, or other personal information be sold to or given to any other parties. We will never willfully sell, lease, or rent any of your or your business' personally identifiable information to any third party.

ACCESS TO YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We will provide you with access to any personal information we hold (except in the limited circumstances recognised by privacy law).

If you require access or need to update your information (e.g., if you change your address), please get in touch with us so we can make the change.

MORE INFORMATION

More information about Privacy law and the National Privacy Principles is available from the Federal Privacy Commissioner at <http://www.privacy.gov.au>.
